

Please do not let the big radio stations interfere with satellite radio's right to broadcast local content like weather and traffic. This is nothing more than government protection from competition and interfering with free speech and content.

Satellite radio has obvious natural advantages that local radios want to be protected from at the expense of satellite radio users. Please do not let narrow interest interfere with the public right to choose and use what they desire and what is better for the consumer.